10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
St. Andrew's Church and Hall, comprising St. Andrew's Church (1898) and St. Andrew's Church Hall (1911), constructed from red clay bricks with contrasting concrete details and painted corrugated iron roofing, has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:
 - the place contains the oldest church in Katanning;
 - the place, as individual buildings expressing a relationship to each other, creates a minor precinct of red brick buildings with stucco detailing, that is reflective of the development of Katanning in the years 1898 to 1911;
 - the place has a close association with Frederick Henry Piesse who was influential in the development of Katanning;

the place is valued by the Katanning community for its religious and historic associations; and, the place contributes to Katanning's sense of place, as a reminder of the initial establishment of Katanning.
