10. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
Fmr Sikh Cemetery, a former cemetery reserve/cremation site, has cultural heritage significance for the following reasons:

it is a rare remnant of a resting place for a number of members of the Sikh community, one of the peoples from varied ethnic backgrounds who have participated in the development of Western Australia;

it is valued by the Sikh community of Western Australia for its association with the cultural, social and religious life of that community; and, the place contributes to the Canning community's sense of place, as a reminder of the presence of the Sikh community in the area.
